Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

This is a regular community event that has been carried out annually for several years and wishes to expand its scope to allow the retail of alcohol via selected third party retailers as part of its traders market.

We have taken into account the Guidance issued under the Licensing Act 2003
We have noted the environmental, business and social composition of the area and as a consequence, we are offering a whole raft of proportionate, effective and enforceable conditions to ensure promotion of the Licensing Objectives.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

1. An incident log will be kept by all retailers and retained by the club for 12 months from the date of any incident.

All incident logs will be made immediately available on request to an "authorised" person as defined by section 13 of the Licensing Act 2003.

All incident logs must record.

- a) all crimes (relating to licensing)
- b) all ejection of patrons
- c) any complaints (relating to licensing)
- d) any incidents of disorder
- e) all refusals of the sale of alcohol
- f) any visit by a relevant authority or emergency services to include time, date, purpose and name of any official.

All parties engaged in the sale of alcohol will be officially briefed and authorised by the DPS and must comply with the following

- Only the event's designated pop-up bars are permitted to sell or supply alcoholic drinks for consumption on the premises. The sale of alcohol in the Market is permitted on a retail basis for off-site consumption only and must be sold in sealed containers. Market traders are not permitted to open bottles for customers and must make it clear at point of sale that drinks purchased from the Market or other retail outlets are not to be consumed on site.
- No glass items or glass bottles are to be supplied for consumption on site All drinks served for on-site consumption must be supplied in open plastic containers.

c) Public safety

No extra risks to public safety have been identified from a licensing point of view. Event safety is covered by way of employment of a third party security company who are all SIA trained to deal with any incidents of public disorder. General event safety has been covered within the event risk assessment.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise levels from live and recorded music shall not emanate from the premises perimeter so as to cause a nuisance

15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
