About our survey

We are Welsh Local Government Association.

Pembrokeshire County Council asked us to run this survey.

We are asking the same questions in lots of areas across Wales.

There are 37 questions in this survey. Some questions are split into parts. It may take some time to work through all the questions.

You can save your answers and come back to it if you need a break.

Your voice matters

This is a survey of people living in Pembroke County Council.

By answering the questions, you will help us understand:

- What is important to you
- Your experience of your local area
- How you contact the council
- What you think about the council.

Your views help shape your local area and services. Please ask your family, friends, and neighbours to take this survey too.

How we will use your data

Only Pembrokeshire County Council and Welsh Local Government Association will see information that could identify you.

We will keep your information for 3 years from when the survey closes.

We will keep your data confidential. We will follow the laws:

- Data Protection Act 2018
- UK General Data Protection Regulations.

Pembrokeshire County Council's privacy policy is on their website.

Welsh Local Government Association's privacy policy is on our website.

Completing the survey
